

BAROSSA BABE REVIEW

2006 SHIRAZ

Barossa Babe Shiraz comes out of the Rockbare stable of wines. The words 'Barossa Babe' are written in a particularly curvaceous font.

Wears its alcohol warmth of its sleeve but it's a terribly seductive package nonetheless. This is a wine full of sweet, soft, fruit-saturated flavour. Tar, blackberries, toasty oak, woodspice and raisins. It starts and ends with a rich fruitiness; some pretty specy grapes went into this.

Babe by name but a brute at 15.5 percent alcohol; being fair all was in balance and it held a line from nose through to final swallow very enjoyable and well made wine 93 points.
